

HEREFORDSHIRE &
WORCESTERSHIRE
TRAINING HUB

Need help to advertise vacancies?

Herefordshire and Worcestershire Training Hub website is a resource for GP Practices providing information on training and career opportunities such as apprentice schemes and now has a vacancy page to support job advertising.

Our jobs webpage provides an additional advertising resource for Practice Managers to advertise their own jobs which are boosted on social media platforms to attract more views.

How to advertise a vacancy;

- Register for an account following the link below and send an email request to be granted vacancy administrator access;

<https://www.primarycaretraininghub.co.uk/account-admin/>

- Once granted access, on your account there will be an option to 'create a vacancy'
- Complete the form and click submit and follow up with an email to vacancies@taurushealthcare.co.uk to prompt a validation process
- Once the closing date has been reached all applicant's CVs will be sent via email
